The Vigo County School Corporation and the Indiana School Safety Specialist Academy Present:

"School Safety Training: Lessons Learned from a Hostage Situation and Improved Methods of Threat Assessment"

Presented by:

Captain Mark Hancock, Park County Sheriff's Office, Bailey, Colorado

Mark Hancock was a lead member of law enforcement who responded to a hostage situation in Bailey, Colorado on September 27, 2006. An intruder to that school held several female students hostage until the intruder and one student lost their lives. Captain Hancock will review what led up to that incident, and review the importance of safety awareness in schools. During his tenure with the Park County Sheriff's Office, Captain Hancock has been instrumental in developing the school resource program, and the active shooter training.

Kevin Kinnee, Indiana Intelligence Fusion Center

Kevin Kinnee will review methods of threat assessment from the unique perspective of crowd control and management of extracurricular events. Kevin is a 20 year law enforcement veteran and a national law enforcement instructor in the areas of criminal investigation, predator vs. prey (hunting the criminal), surveillance photography, neighborhood security profiles/crime reduction, and terror tactics. Kevin is the author of three criminal investigation textbooks and is currently a Liaison Coordinator with the Indiana Intelligence Fusion Center.
